British Government Urged to Strike for Bimetallism.

MANCHESTER, Oct. 28.--This city, together with all the other commercial centres in Lancashire, is infusing into the currency agitation the heat of a great politi-cal question. Apart from the declarations made by Arthur Balfour at the meeting of lists in this city, last night, the feature of the meeting was the enthusiastic reseption given to the resolutions in favor of the establishment of a double standard.

emedy for depressed trade would be a broad of the leading nations to the unrestricted coinage of gold and silver. The resolution demanded that the British Government co-operate at the coming Inter-national Monetary Conference, which opens in Brussels on Nov. 22, to secure such an agreement.

Infanta Isabella, of Spain, Likely to Come to the Fair.

Madrid to the Department of State give an interesting account of the presentation of the invitation from the Congress of the United States to the Queen of Spain and the descendants of Columbus to attend the World's Columbian Exposition.

The Queen expressed her regret that the Constitution of Spain prohibited her from accepting, but said she should send a repreatative. It is probable that the Infanta abella, mister of the late King, will attend. Strike of Lancashire Cotton-Spinners May Be Averted.

(BT ASSOCIATED PARSA.)
DR. Oct. 28.—The impression is growing in Lancashire that the threatened strike of the cotton-spinners will be averted.

It is asserted that the negotiations looking to the arbitration of the questions in dispute between the employers and employees were instigated by the Federation of Master Cotton-Spinners upon finding that there was little disposition among the members of the Federation to adopt a lockout, in view of the mproved condition of the cotton market.

THE PILOT COULDN'T GET OFF. Nor Queenstown Malls Nor Passen gers Reach the City of New York.

INT ASSOCIATED PARSE.! LONDON, Oct. 28.—The gale that has prevalled on the southwest coast of Ireland for he past three days is now greatly abated. The Associated Press despatches have reported the fact that the Inman line steamer City of New York was unable to call at Queenstown because of the heavy weather. The Liverpool pilot is abourd of her and will have to make the passage to New York, un-less he is placed on board some incoming

The tender from Queenstown, with passen gers and mails on board remained outside for two hours and a half and then returned without getting alongside the City of New York. This incident is without precedent in the history of the Atlantic mail steamers.

FOUGHT TO ESCAPE PRISON.

Desperate Encounter with a Negro Who Took Refuge in a Cellar.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Oct. 28.-James Lee sentenced to ten years at Auburn Prison on Tuesday last, escaped from the county jail resterday afternoon by prying open a door eading into the jail yard with a pickaxe. From the yard he managed to reach wenty foot wall and disappeared among the houses behind the jail. About dark he was located in a cellar. He refused to come out and the officers were afraid to go inside. He was fired upon by the officers, who stood about eight feet away. He refused to sur-render and the officers finally went inside iter him. He fought desperately even at the point of revolver, but was overpowered after a hard struggle.

Lee linished a five year's sentence at Auburn, three days before he was arrested, for attempting to shoot an officer.
